Face Lift

MyNextSuite loves to keep a fresh image and is thrilled to announce that we are receiving a bit of Building Botox.

You may have already noticed a few updates such as, the new LCD screen which displays the building directory, the sparkling new pebble entry ways, and our freshly paved parking lot. That's not all. MyNextSuite will continue to make updates within the next few months. A few of these updates include bathroom remodeling, digital signage and exciting new displays. Keep your eyes peeled for the upcoming changes.

MyNextSuite prides itself on the available options it provides to tenants. Within our available suites, we have different styles to fit the unique needs of any business.

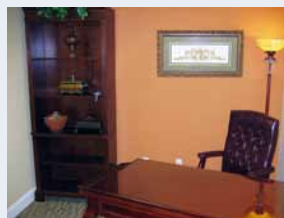

Single office solutions provide a sophisticated corporate image for those not ready to commit to a large space. Our single office concept includes amenities ranging from high speed Internet, direct phone and fax numbers to toll free number and conference room usage. Single office solutions are ideally suited for any business that wants to avoid the high cost of owning their own facility and is in need of a minimal amount of space. However, as your business grows, MyNextSuite also provides you the option to relocate into a larger space.

Traditional office solutions appeal to, not only an established, larger sized company, but also a growing business as well. Many of MyNextSuite's Traditional suites contain large open areas that can be sub-divided to accommodate cubicles or other smaller work stations. A traditional office lease also includes private conference rooms and kitchens within the space, telephone service, high speed Internet and janitorial services, among many others.

Virtual office solutions provide many of the amenities necessary to create a quality professional image without the need and cost of a full-time suite. Virtual office solutions are designed for individuals and small businesses that need access to office space, conference rooms and other services on an as-needed basis. MyNextSuite's Virtual Office Solutions provide a turnkey solution including full furnishings, so there is no waiting for staff assistance or equipment installations.
